UF Policy regarding undergraduate courses during the MPH.

Since the Master of Public Health is a graduate degree program, students are expected to take graduate courses. MPH students are not permitted to enroll in undergraduate courses without written approval of their supervisory chairs. Students who register in undergraduate courses without permission will be required to withdraw when the unauthorized registration is identified. Furthermore, the student must absorb any financial loss associated with course withdrawal.

UNDERGRADUATE COURSE REQUEST FORM
Date:	Semester requesting to take undergraduate course:
Student Name:	Concentration:
	Graduate GPA:
Course Name:
Course Description:
Please explain why you wish to take this undergraduate course:

PLEASE ATTACH CURRENT PLAN OF STUDY.

_____ _____

Signature, Supervisory Chair Date

Return this form to Mischka Garel HPNP, G229